

On Saturday our new LSA Miss Gostick got married and became Mrs Tranter. Weddings are a special time when family and friends can get together and create memories for the future.

This week Y3 are going to visit the Botanical Gardens in Birmingham.

Questions:

- What do you think they are learning about?

Questions:

- What is the first memory that you have?
- Have you ever been to a wedding?
- Who is authorised to marry you at a wedding?
- What is the minimum age you can be to get married?
- What types of wedding services can you legally have?

After a £7.1 million pound project was given the go ahead, Jaguar Land Rover (West Midlands based company) plans to create a fleet of more than 100 cars as part of a driverless car project that will be tested on motorways and roads around Coventry.

Questions:

Why might a driverless car be helpful?

Do you think this is a good change for the future?

On Friday some of our children are going to the University of Warwick to look at their Sculpture and Colour Trail. They will be looking at 5 or 6 works of abstract sculpture. These vary in size, shape, material, colour and making technique – from the carved marble of Dark at Heart by Peter Randall-Page to the bird-like painted aluminium of Op Mobile no. 10 by Nechemia Azaz. they evoke and the techniques the artists have used. Works include Orange with Lemon and White by Patrick

Questions:

- What different types of art are there?
- Look at the sculptures below – is it art? What do you like about them?
- What makes something art?

Workers go on strike

London Underground passengers face travel chaos yesterday because of a strike by thousands of workers in a dispute over jobs losses and ticket office closures.

Questions:

- What does going on strike mean?
- How will this affect people who use the tube?
- What might going on strike do to help the workers?
- Is it right for people to go on strike?
- What if the person striking is a nurse or a fire fighter?
